The dream is real. Rural living at its best.

A truly high quality rural property positioned on a 100 acre parcel of grazing land only 15 mins drive from Singleton. The owners of this property have not spared any expense or effort in creating this stunning, executive 4 bedroom residence. With a wide array of impressive features, the intelligent plan has resulted in a combination of 5 indoor/outdoor living spaces in this family friendly home. The master bedroom is luxurious with an impressive walk in robe/dressing room, a beautiful ensuite and rural views for kilometres. Hardwood floors feature throughout the main living areas & high ceilings are standard throughout. The quality features continue outdoors with a self-cleaning inground pool being overlooked by the outdoor area, which is a combination a screened room, a covered deck & an open area surrounding a fire pit. The 100 acre paddock is entirely useable for grazing/horses & the property includes an easement to Glennies Creek for access to permanent water. A long list of other improvements include a outdoor kitchen, slow combustion fire, office/4th BR, kitchen with stone benchtops & walk-in-pantry, ducted AC, double attached garage, 12m x 12 m colourbond shed with power, concrete floor & 45,000 litre tank, 3 paddocks, good quality fencing, many established trees & gardens, 135,000 litre water storage, large dam & a level of presentation that is rarely seen.

Set on 37 acres, the original 1900's soldiers settlement cottage has been thoughtfully extended to ensure the historic features of the property have been retained, including many of the original floorboards and brick fireplace. A homely and extremely comfortable cottage, the homestead now boasts four bedrooms, including a separate, large master bedroom with ensuite and balcony on the upstairs level. The three additional bedrooms and a study are located on the ground floor and separated from the living areas.

With beautiful views of the vines and surrounding mountain range, the large 9.8m x 5.2m lounge room features raked ceilings and split system air conditioner. Winter nights will be spent snuggled on the lounge next to the wood burner and family meals will be shared all year round in the 7.2m x 4.8m enclosed entertaining area.

In addition to its award-winning vines which consist of a highly regarded Chambourcin and Shiraz, the property currently boasts a very successful and profitable bed and breakfast operation, capitalising on its close location to many wineries and wedding venues.

The property is well set up for horses, with fully fenced 5-acre and 20-acre paddocks with dams, plus a further 3 smaller yards, one with shade sails close to the main house and gravity fed troughs. All fencing is post and wire with sighter wire on the top strand.

Water is a feature of the property with three dams and a 500m frontage to the Wollemi Brook. Water storage includes a 5 meg PID licence, 33,000 litre holding tank and second 25,000 litre rain water tank off the house.

Additional buildings include a shed currently used as a tack and feed shed. There is an additional 10 x 10 Colourbond machinery shed towards the end of the property.

A storybook home in a beautiful location makes "Kalagari" the ideal property to start your next chapter.
